

The Arts and Social Justice Conference

Bringing educators and youth together to share innovative social justice curricula

Join keynote speaker and performer

Ariel Luckey

in
FREELAND

At: Mount St. Mary's College — Doheny Campus, Los Angeles

Saturday, March 13, 2010

For info: www.culturalfluency.org

Mount St. Mary's College Education Department — Center for Cultural Fluency presents:

Critical Teaching in Action Conference 2010:
The Arts and Social Justice

*Bringing educators and youth together to share innovative
social justice curricula*

Saturday, March 13, 2010 • 8 am – 5 pm

Mount St. Mary's College Doheny campus, Los Angeles

Keynote Speaker: Ariel Luckey is a hip hop theater artist whose community and performance work dances in the crossroads of education, art and activism. He will perform his "Freeland" hip hop theater act.

Featuring Workshops by Emmy-Award winning Marcos McPeck Villatoro, Inner City Arts, YouTHink, Facing History and Ourselves, reDiscover Center as well as K-12 and College Educators on such topics as:

- Film and Social Justice • Media Literacy & Visual Arts in the Classroom
- Using Drama to Explore Social Issues • Using Photography to Tell Stories
- Developing a Democratic Action Plan for Art at your School
- Recycled Materials and the Innovative Child • and many more!

Conference fee: $20 before March 1st (includes breakfast/lunch)

For more info and to register: www.culturalfluency.org or contact Julie Feldman-Abe at jabe@msmc.la.edu or 213 477 2625

Center for Cultural Fluency

